

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic Honesty is a shared responsibility of the individual student and the College's faculty and staff.

Coastline College's reputation relies on the individual student's commitment to academic honesty and the effective administration of academic misconduct issues by the College's faculty and staff.

Coastline College faculty are responsible for ensuring that grades reflect the student's learned knowledge as exhibited in the classroom and through their coursework. Student acts of academic misconduct disrupt the educational process, weaken the College's reputation, and present challenges for our faculty to assess academic performance fairly and accurately.

While Coastline College faculty hold primary responsibility for ensuring that academic honesty is maintained in their classes, individual students share in this responsibility. Coastline students are to refrain from engaging in academic misconduct.

The Coast Community College District's Student Code of Conduct Administrative Procedures (AP 5500 (https://documents.cccd.edu/Board%20of%20Trustees/Administrative%20Procedures/AP_5500_Student_Code_of_Conduct.pdf)) applies to all students.

Procedures for Dealing with Academic Misconduct

Faculty Member Actions

Any Coastline faculty member who has evidence that a student has committed an act of academic misconduct, under the Student Code of Conduct Administrative Procedures (AP 5500 (https://documents.cccd.edu/Board%20of%20Trustees/Administrative%20Procedures/AP_5500_Student_Code_of_Conduct.pdf)) shall take one or more of the following disciplinary actions:

- Speak with the student about the incident.
- Issue an oral reprimand.
- Give the student an "F" grade, zero points, or a reduced number of points on all or part of a particular paper, project or examination; if the act of academic dishonesty results in a "F" grade or zero points being awarded to the student for that particular paper, project, or examination, and this result affects the student's overall grade in the class, then the student shall be issued the proper grade, as affected by the specific "F" or zero grade, by the faculty member.

For all incidents of academic misconduct, the instructor will report the matter to the College's Disciplinary Officer in the Dean of Student Office using the Maxient Reporting Form (https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?CoastColleges&layout_id=3).

Actions by the College's Disciplinary Officer

Upon receipt of a report of academic misconduct, the College's Disciplinary Officer will send a letter to the student inviting them to present a response to the allegations of academic misconduct.

The sanctions imposed for an act of academic dishonesty depend on the severity of the incident. As a result, a student may be suspended from the College on a first offense or be recommended for expulsion by the CCCD Board of Trustees.

If, following the student's return from suspension, the College's Disciplinary Officer receives further reports of academic misconduct, they will recommend the student be expelled from the District for a period of no less than three years.

The College's Disciplinary Officer shall keep the faculty member and appropriate Dean(s) reasonably informed of the status and outcome of the disciplinary process for incidents of academic misconduct.

Examples of Academic Misconduct

Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Using AI tools to generate a response, essay, or solution to an assignment without instructor permission.
- Submitting AI-generated content as one's own original work without acknowledging the source or obtaining instructor consent
- Taking an examination for another student or having someone else take an examination on your behalf.
- Altering a graded examination/assignment and submitting it for additional credit.
- Having another person or entity conduct research and/or write a report on your behalf.
