

MUS G127: WIND BAND SKILLS 1

Item	Value
Curriculum Committee Approval Date	10/15/2024
Top Code	100400 - Music
Units	1 Total Units
Hours	42 Total Hours (Lecture Hours 6; Lab Hours 36)
Total Outside of Class Hours	0
Course Credit Status	Credit: Degree Applicable (D)
Material Fee	No
Basic Skills	Not Basic Skills (N)
Repeatable	No
Open Entry/Open Exit	Yes
Grading Policy	Standard Letter (S)

Course Description

This course is designed for the student who is new to the collegiate band experience, but has had previous successful experiences performing on their chosen instrument. Introduction and implementation of wind band ensemble and performance skills including rehearsal etiquette, rehearsal techniques, individual practice skills, section performance skills, and musical interpretation. PREREQUISITE: Audition. Transfer Credit: CSU.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome(s)

1. Course Outcomes
2. Perform wind band literature with musical accuracy and precision at a beginning level.
3. Develop musical skills in the areas of sight-reading, ensemble interaction and listening, performance practices, and individualized practice.
4. Identify standard wind band literature, composers, and performance practices.

Course Objectives

- 1. Perform with technical proficiency at an introductory collegiate level on a chosen instrument.
- 2. Utilize introductory musical listening skills within the ensemble.
- 3. Perform in a variety of musical styles and genres with introductory facility.
- 4. Utilize live performance skills and practices with introductory facility to perform a variety of musical styles for diverse audiences.
- 5. Utilize teamwork with other students to achieve a common goal.

Lecture Content

Musical performance interpretation of wind band literature Introduction to intonation Correct tone production and relative intonation on the student's individual instrument. Matching of intonation and tone quality within a section of the ensemble. Matching of intonation and tone quality within the ensemble as a whole. Introduction to rhythm Accurate and precise reading and interpretation of rhythms and meters in printed music. Accurate performance of rhythms and meters within an instrumental section. Accurate performance of rhythms and meters within the instrumental ensemble. Accurately following the conductor for pulse, meter, and rhythmic interpretation in context of the ensemble. Introduction to articulation Correct visual interpretation and musical performance techniques of articulation markings in printed music. Accurately matching articulation style within the context of the instrumental section. Accurately matching articulation style within the context of the instrumental ensemble. Introduction to expression Correct visual interpretation and musical performance of expression markings on the printed music. Correct musical interpretation and performance of emotional expression through interaction with the conductor. Accurately following the conductor's musical interpretation of literature within the context of the section and ensemble. Introduction to ensemble performance skills Accurate utilization of wind band rehearsal and performance practices. Standards and practices of professionalism as a musician with rehearsal and performance: attendance, promptness, deportment, and participation. Musical preparedness for rehearsal and performances. Accurate performance practices for standard wind band literature. Accurate performance practices of solo passages within the context of wind band literature. Accurate utilization of listening and performance skills to achieve proper section and ensemble blend and balance including modulation of volume, tone, and pitch.

Lab Content

Perform the individual part within the section and ensemble as directed by the conductor. Perform the correct pitches as indicated on the printed music with correct tone and accurate intonation. Perform the individual part with the articulation, phrasing, and expression as directed by the conductor. Perform the individual part with appropriate balance and blend of the section and ensemble. Perform with stylistic appropriateness to the period/style of the composition being rehearsed or performed. Perform at a skill level appropriate to the literature performed by the ensemble. Perform solos correctly as assigned and applicable to the literature. Memorize performance repertoire as needed and directed. Adhere to professional level rehearsal and performance standards of conduct.

Method(s) of Instruction

- Lecture (02)
- Lab (04)

Reading Assignments

Explore and research the historical significance and musical structure of specific musical selections being performed in the ensemble.

Writing Assignments

Write a short paragraph describing the challenges of a particular musical passage and various methods to successfully solve any issues presented by the passage.

Out-of-class Assignments

Independent preparation and practice of assigned musical passages to maintain and improve a high level of musical performance competence.

Demonstration of Critical Thinking

Planning and executing a successful individual musical practice session covering the music being rehearsed in wind symphony. This practice session would include improvement of specific musical passages, developing stronger characteristic tone production and overall intonation, and refining production of specific articulation skills. Development of a greater understanding of the wind band literature being studied during the semester.

Required Writing, Problem Solving, Skills Demonstration

Researching and implementing correct performance practices of the ensemble's musical literature, both for ensemble and solo passages.

Eligible Disciplines

Music: Master's degree in music OR bachelor's degree in music AND master's degree in humanities OR the equivalent. Master's degree required.

Other Resources

1. Musical literature selections will vary from semester to semester and are determined by the instrumentation of the ensemble. Standard wind band literature from the Baroque through contemporary musical stylistic periods will be utilized to develop the student's musical and ensemble skills.