Course Description

This course is designed to develop further the abilities students have attained to comprehend and converse daily in spoken and written Vietnamese at an intermediate level. Reading and writing skills are stressed and enhanced. Cultural notes, authentic reading materials, literary selections, and grammar beyond the phrasal level present new concepts to stimulate vocabulary acquisition, to provoke expressive ability, and to generate communicative competency. Cultural and philosophical aspects of the Vietnamese-speaking world, including the world of Vietnamese-Americans, will also be discussed. PREREQUISITE: VIET C185 or VIET C185B or equivalent competency. Transfer Credit: CSU; UC.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome(s)

1. Demonstrate ability to respond orally and in writing in two dialects in intermediate-level spoken and written Vietnamese.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of unique cultural aspects of the Vietnamese-speaking people.

Course Objectives

- 1. Interpret and appraise early intermediate level spoken and written Vietnamese formulated by native speakers and compose and construct oral and written responses.
- 2. Compare and contrast various aspects of the cultures, beliefs, and world views of the peoples of Vietnamese-speaking countries and regions with those of the United States orally and in writing at the early intermediate level.
