

GENDER STUDIES (GNDR)

GNDR A100 3 Units (54 lecture hours)

Introduction to Gender Studies

Grading Mode: Standard Letter

Transfer Credit: CSU; UC.

An interdisciplinary approach to understanding the role of gender in influencing experiences in society. Focus is on the role of gender in all levels of society and in all social institutions, including family, business, education, health, and religion. The perspective will be both historical and cross-cultural. C-ID: SOCI 140.

GNDR A130 3 Units (54 lecture hours)

Women, Politics, and Inequality

Grading Mode: Standard Letter

Transfer Credit: CSU; UC.

Perspectives on women and their participation in resisting and reproducing inequality in national and international contexts. Examines the gendered character of societal institutions and politics from the bedroom to the boardroom by focusing on gender, race, ethnicity, class, and sexuality in education, work, politics, the household, and activism.

GNDR A165 3 Units (54 lecture hours)

Men, Women, and Communication

Grading Mode: Standard Letter

Transfer Credit: CSU.

Major issues will be addressed regarding communication behaviors and communication conflicts between men and women of all gender orientations. Study will focus on problem analysis specific to gender self-awareness, gender conflict and how gender is communicated and constructed in our daily lives. Same as CMST A165. Students completing GNDR A165 may not receive credit for CMST A165.

GNDR A187 3 Units (54 lecture hours)

Women in History

Grading Mode: Standard Letter

Transfer Credit: CSU; UC.

Provides a broad overview of the experiences of women in the history of the world from hunter-gatherer societies to the present. It examines how women's political, economic, social, and cultural experiences have been shaped by gender and affected by place, time, class, and race. Same as HIST A187. Students receiving credit for GNDR A187 may not receive credit for HIST A187.