NARRATIVE ILLUSTRATION, ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE DEGREE

Banner Code: 1_AS_CANI
Financial Aid Eligible

The Narrative Illustration option places its emphasis on a great variety of drawing and painting courses. The diversity of its curriculum may lead the student into career alternatives, such as Illustration for books, including children's literature, magazines, entertainment art, editorial illustrations and corporate brochures. Students will work in hand made traditional media as well as digital art and illustrations.

Complete the Narrative Illustration Certificate of Achievement and the Associate in Science graduation requirements as outlined in the Graduation Requirements section of the catalog. Note: this AS degree may require more than 60 units for completion, depending on electives chosen.

Program Outcomes

1. Create a series of illustrations in a variety of mediums demonstrating techniques and applications of current hands-on illustration techniques.
2. Demonstrate proficiency in drawing, perspective, and various mediums.
3. Create a portfolio utilizing multiple design techniques for the purpose of becoming freelance commercial artists and/or acceptance to an art college or university for advanced learning.
